Cocktail of the Week: Cheeky Vanilla and Apple Sour

Recently I was delivered a carton of a new beverage called Vanilla Bean Apple Cider. It is no secret that I love cider, especially on a hot summers day (or a rainy day... or an overcast day... actually any day is good for a cider!) So the fact that this cider is made using real fruit (apple and berries) plus wine just made it all the more enticing!

Now when it came to pondering how I could turn this delicious drink into a cocktail for my blog, I was very lucky that a chap by the name of James Williams was able to help out. His official title is a "Mixologist" and he works at the Flinders Hotel, at the glorious Mornington Peninsula.

Warning: when you look at the ingredients below you may be surprised to see egg white but TRUST me it actually works!!

Be adventurous and give it a go.. Seriously!!

Enjoy x

The Cheeky Vanilla and Apple Sour

60 ml Cheeky Rascal Vanilla Bean and Apple Cider

30 ml Premium Vodka

10 ml Vanilla Bean infused Gomme (simple syrup 2:1)

10 ml Fresh egg white

5 ml Fresh juice of lemon

Mix all together, beat with a whisk and pour into a cocktail glass.

Garnish – Edible rose petal (white or yellow)
