Victoria's Rebello Wines has scored gold at the Australian Fruit Wine Show in Hobart.

Strawbellini, a blend of sparkling moscato and strawberry wine, took home a gold medal and the gong for Best Sparkling in Show.

Rebello's Charlotte and Fragola Cielo were awarded silver and its Fragola Port and Fragola Amore won bronze.

Rebello Wines proprietor Matt Gallace said he was delighted. "We are a boutique label so to be up against, and ultimately win against some of the big names in the industry tells us that we are achieving results in what is an ever-changing and competitive market place."

Strawbellini is an elaboration on the classic champagne cocktail, containing 9 per cent alcohol and made from a blend of late-harvest moscato from the Mornington Peninsula and Sunny Ridge strawberries.
